

Associate in Arts DEGREE

Emphasis in History

Program Overview

The Associate in Arts Degree – Emphasis in History provides students with the opportunity to study the narrative of past events as they relate to the human race. They use this knowledge to discuss, write, and educate others regarding the interpretation of the past.

Career Opportunities

Students who successfully complete the Associate in Arts Degree – Emphasis in History will be prepared to transfer to a baccalaureate program in History. With a degree in History you can work in a number of fields within the government and education systems such as special collections librarians, archivists, museum work, and faculty at secondary and post-secondary institutions. A History degree is also useful preparation for careers in policy studies or the practice of law.

Program Outcomes

1. Apply knowledge of the important concepts and principles of the natural sciences, mathematics, history, social and behavioral sciences, arts, and humanities.
2. Develop skills necessary for life roles, including skills in thinking, communication, and methods of inquiry and applications of knowledge.
3. Critically examine and develop an appreciation for diverse people, cultures, and life roles.
4. Develop oral and written communication skills to communicate with a wide range of diverse populations.
5. Demonstrate an understanding of historical events and their causes, indicators, and effects on civilizations and cultures.

Transfer Opportunities

Saint Paul College has a transfer articulation agreement between the following program and post-secondary institution for the baccalaureate degree program listed below.
