

Associate of Arts DEGREE

Communication Studies Transfer Pathway

Program Overview

The Communication Studies Transfer Pathway provides students with the opportunity to learn how to write strong messages and speak persuasively. Students will also build skills in networking, team building, and conflict management.

Career Opportunities

Students who successfully complete the Communication Studies Transfer Pathway will be prepared to transfer to a baccalaureate program in Professional Communications. With a degree in Communications you can work in a number of fields within the Arts, Audio-Video Technology and Communications sectors such as Communications Director, Customer Relations, Media Relations, Journalism and Sales.

Program Outcomes

1. Apply key concepts and principles of the communication discipline.
2. Apply learned skills in active listening, perception, disclosure and critical thinking.
3. Describe how gender and cultural identity influence communication.
4. Analyze spoken messages and provide feedback.
5. Demonstrate ethical written and oral communication skills.

Transfer Opportunities

Saint Paul College has a transfer articulation agreement between the following program and post-secondary institution for the baccalaureate degree program listed below.
