

Financial Certification Statement

STUDENT ID #: _____

For Office Use Only

F-1 international applicants must provide evidence of financial support for one full year for all expenses, to include tuition, fees, books and supplies, mandatory health insurance, living expenses, and transportation, as required by US government regulation. This financial certification statement is required along with a clearly scanned copy of the bank statement or letter that is less than three months old.

Specific requirements for the bank statement and proof of funds can be found at saintpaul.edu/admissions/international-student-application/#required-documents. Students are expected to have full access to the funds demonstrated during the admission process. Saint Paul College does not have sufficient emergency or scholarship funding to financially support students in the event of a loss of sponsorship or funding.

For financial sponsors who are US citizens or residents, it is highly recommended to also submit the Affidavit of Support Form I-134 (most recent form here: www.uscis.gov/i-134) and supporting evidence. You will need the I-134 when applying for your F-1 visa. Saint Paul College cannot assist in completing this form.

Dependent information (if applicable): Name, DOB, Country of Citizenship, Country of Birth, Relationship to the Student (spouse, child) - $6,000 for the first dependent and $3,000 each for each dependent after to be added to total expenses above. Please contact international@saintpaul.edu for more information regarding dependents.

I have reviewed this financial information by the applicant listed on this form. These funds will be available and will be provided as long as the student is enrolled at Saint Paul College.
